Travel Alert issued for southeast North Dakota

The North Dakota Department of Transportation (NDDOT) and the North Dakota Highway Patrol have issued a Travel Alert for southeast North Dakota due to falling snow and rain creating wet and slippery roads. As temperatures fall through the night, the roads will become icy. Cities included in the Travel Alert are Hillsboro, Casselton, Fargo and Wahpeton and surrounding areas. A Travel Alert means conditions are such that motorists can still travel in these areas, but should be advised of rapidly changing conditions. Motorists are encouraged to reduce speeds and drive according to the conditions.

All travelers are encouraged to monitor road conditions as weather conditions occur and use caution while traveling. For road information, call 511 from any type of phone or go to the website: www.dot.nd.gov. NDDOT releases information to inform the public about travel conditions throughout the state. The three categories are as follows:
